The Feast of All Saints'

Sunday 1 November

Liturgy

Sunday Collect:

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Intercessions

In the power of the Spirit and in union with Christ, let us pray to the Father.

Today, All Saints' Day, we remember that 'Salvation belongs to our God, who is seated on the Throne, and to the Lamb!'

We give thanks for Sarah, Archbishop of Canterbury, Emma, Acting-Bishop of London, Lusa, Bishop of Willesden, and our own Ministry Team, including Paul, Ben and Mark and for all who have helped us to understand that we are all God's children.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Blessed are the peacemakers! We pray for the peace of the world. We pray for the leaders of the world, particularly those who hold tremendous amounts of power.
We pray for President Zelensky as he attempts to defend Ukraine.
We pray for the members of our own Armed Forces.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We pray for the young people in our parish, who have enjoyed half term over the last week and hope that they are rested and ready to return to school this week. We pray for their teachers who have also had a break and are eager to encourage the young people again.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We pray for the sick and distressed, including Jacqui Carey, Don Lindley, Sarah, Finlay McKenzie, Maria Stonehouse, Helen Haile, Mark Turley, John Lay, Janine Green, David Payne, Tony Waterfield, John Taylor and Lis Warren as well as others known to us and those who receive Communion at home.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

'Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted.'
We pray for those being remembered at the Bereavement Service this afternoon; and for the souls of all who have died recently, and for those whose year's mind falls today: Patricia Kingshott, Helen Witney, Leslie Read, Evelyn Jones, Margaret Still and Margaret Smith and any others remembered by us personally.
Lord, in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of the Virgin Mary, John the Baptist and all your saints, we pray: 'Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen!'

Notices

All Souls'– Monday 2 November – at the Eucharists at 10.00 am and 8.00 pm on that day the names of the dear departed will be read out. Please put the names of the dear departed you wish to be remembered at these Eucharists on the relevant list in the porch.
