- ✘ Ringing Remembers. Today, a 100 years since Armistice, bells will ring out in unison from churches and cathedrals in villages, towns and cities across the country. The bells in Pinner will ring:
 - at 8.45 am before the combined service at 9.30 am
 - at 10.30 am before the National Memorial Service
 - at 12.30 pm as part of National Ringing, coinciding with the nation's tribute as thousands march past the Cenotaph.
- ✘ The Vicar is on retreat this coming week.
- ✘ There is no Monday morning Eucharist this week.
- ✘ Pinner Association of Churches' AGM and Worshipping Together next Sunday, 18 November from 5.00 pm at Pinner Methodist Church, Love Lane.

- ✘ For our next visit, the Social Group will be going to the Hindu Temple at Neasden on Thursday 15 November. Entrance to the temple is free, apart from a small museum which costs £2. Of course donations are welcome. Our lunch will be taken at the vegetarian restaurant next door to the temple and will be curry based.

I feel I must point out a couple of things, first that all bags, including handbags, are not allowed in the temple and will be kept in the security office. You can take purses and wallets in, they have to be kept in your pocket. The second thing is that no shoes are allowed to be worn, so you will walk barefooted on smooth stone floors.

If you wish to come on this visit, please ring and let me know and meet at 10.00 am at Pinner Station. We will be travelling by tube and bus.

- ✘ Five of our junior choristers will receive RSCM awards at St Paul's Cathedral on Saturday 17 November at 5.00 pm. Our congratulations to all of them, and the service of Choral Evensong is open to the public so do please feel free to come along and support and congratulate them.
